Table of Contents

Introduction v
Trevor Holyoak

1. Joseph Smith's Gold Plates 1
Richard Lyman Bushman

2. The Book of Mormon and Archaeology: Challenges, Questions and Perspectives 15
Matthew Roper

3. The Cross of Christ and Golden Plates: Using an Established Historical Method to Authenticate Ancient Artifacts 33
Joshua Gehly

4. "Written Upon Gold Plates": Comparing Witness Descriptions with Artifacts from the Pre-Modern World 49
Neal Rappleye

5. Greater Portion of the Word: The Decisive Book of Mormon in the Debates on War and Peace 113
Morgan Deane

6. The Restoration of Relational Grace Through the Book of Mormon 123
Brent Schmidt

7. The Lehites' God-Imposed Affliction by the Red Sea: A New Solution to the Puzzling 2 Nephi 19:1 135
Spencer R. Marsh and Spencer Kraus

8. Observations on Jaredite Ships and Travel to the Promised Land: A Peculiar Journey 159
Charles Dike

9. "All things denote there is a God": Lehi's Discourse on Natural Theology in 2 Nephi 2 187
Jacob Billings

10. Is the Book of Mormon a "Translation" or a "Revelation"? 195
Stephen O. Smoot

11. Reconciling "All the Significant Geographic Details in the Book of Mormon": Validating a New Book of Mormon Model 213
Laura B. Hathaway and Ronald D. Bracken

12. Second Nephi as a Legal Document 225
Martin Evans

13. Vengeance is Mine: Retributive Rhetoric in the Book of Mormon and Early Latter-day Saint History 249
Tyler J. Andersen

About the Contributors 259
Image Credits 265